ABOUT ME

As a seasoned Front-End Engineer with a deep commitment to crafting sophisticated and user-friendly web interfaces, I bring seven years of hands-on experience in front-end development. Throughout my career, I have refined my expertise in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, enabling me to design seamless and responsive web applications. Additionally, I am proficient in popular front-end frameworks such as Vue.js, leveraging their capabilities to enhance the interactivity and performance of web-based projects.
